

Waterproofing design – getting it right from the start!

Employing a waterproofing specialist for your structural waterproofing project means you will be meeting the latest requirements of insurance companies and industry standards.

INK Technical Services represents nearly 100 years of practical and business experience in the waterproofing industry and members of our technical team are all CSSW qualified structural waterproofing surveyors. They have wide experience in the specification and installation of all types of structural waterproofing system in all types of property.

Services available from INK:

- Waterproofing risk assessments – to assess that your waterproofing system is appropriate to the property and its intended use, and conforms to current codes of practice
- Waterproofing design – in accordance with the requirements of BS 8102 (2009)
- Waterproofing advisory service for project teams
- Site inspections and system sign offs
- Reports on failed waterproofing systems, together with proposals for remedial measures
- Approved contractor referrals
- Training and consultancy

To apply for your waterproofing risk assessment and for further information about current standards and the requirements of housing warranty insurance providers, please visit inktechnicalservices.com

Your structural waterproofing project will be in safe hands with INK...